Edward Teancum Murdock was born June 26, 1872, in Heber City, the fourth child of Bishop Joseph Stacy and Pernetta Murdock. Bishop Murdock's first wife Eunice, was childless. He bought two Indian children through Porter Rockwell to save their lives. Eunice raised these two children, a boy, Pickett, and a girl, Pernetta. When Pernetta grew to womanhood Bishop Murdock and Eunice became very concerned over her welfare and future and sought Brigham Young's counsel. He told Bishop Murdock to marry the Indian girl, Pernetta, as a plural wife. Five children were born to this couple, Benjamin Sweet, Betsy Eunice, Albert Alma, Edward Teancum and Franklin Judson.
